📍 Amsterdam 📄 Minimum of 10 years experience

Kubik is a global experiential marketing agency which creates three-dimensional displays and experiences for many Fortune 500 companies and well-known global brands to use at trade shows, retail, and events. The Managing Director will lead the company's Amsterdam office, identifying new business opportunities and driving growth across the European market.

Kubik

Kubik designs and builds award-winning, engaging environments and experiential platforms used at corporate events, trade shows, online broadcasts, retail spaces, branded environments, museums, and galleries. The Canadian company has an impressive client portfolio including Fortune 500 companies and many well-known global brands including HP, Philips, Nissan, Puma, Lego, Times Square in New York City and more.

Kubik has the most diverse background and capabilities in the industry and has a reputation for paying close attention to detail and always delivering extraordinary results. The company has grown their inspiring portfolio by building strong client relationships and consistently providing exceptional customer service.

This innovative international company is headquartered in Toronto, Canada, with local subsidiaries across the globe, including an office in Amsterdam which is responsible for managing the European side of the business. The team works on a variety of exciting projects from small exhibits to large scale global events including, transforming one of ING Bank's buildings into a large shoe for the Amsterdam Marathon, and outfitting the interior of the LEGO museum and even servicing the royal wedding of King Willem-Alexander and Queen Maxima.

VACANCY

Managing Director

Kubik's Amsterdam office services clients across Europe and has ambitious growth goals for the future. Projects are often large-scale and include many complexities which need to be overcome through creative solutions and coordinated teamwork to deliver the one-of-a-kind results that Kubik's clients expect. The Managing Director will provide the necessary structure, strategy and inspiration needed to continue to deliver these exceptional experiences and drive the expansion of the business in the European market.

They will be the main point of contact for senior level marketing executives to Kubik's existing and prospective clients; mostly Fortune 500 companies. As an excellent networker, they will form strong relationships with the clients, gaining a detailed understanding of their challenges and delivering solutions to help them meet their marketing goals. The Managing Director has a vision for the future of Kubik and focuses on identifying and pursuing strategic growth opportunities, both with existing and new clients.

The Managing Director will closely cooperate with the head office in Canada and report directly to Kubik's President and CFO. They will manage the team of 19 employees located in Amsterdam and Poznan (Poland) and mobilizing and uniting the team and ensuring the right creative pace, culture, and energy needed to pursue Kubik's business ambitions.

Kubik is proud to be a team of storytellers, dreamers, and doers: no idea is off-limits! This extremely creative company is home to a diverse team with unique backgrounds, skillsets and capabilities and prides itself on being open to diversity, varying perspectives and encourages collaborative work environment. This role is perfect for an ambitious and energetic leader with a background in marketing and an entrepreneurial mindset.■

“At Kubik we create all kinds of extremely creative, sometimes crazy experiences. We are focused on bringing those experiences to life for even more clients and the Managing Director will play a vital role in taking the business in Europe to the next level.”

Elliot Kohn, President
