Veldhoven Minimum of 10 years experience

ASML is a world-leading manufacturer of chip-making equipment. With its state-of-the-art technology, the company empowers its customers to develop ever faster, smaller, cheaper, and more energy-efficient computer chips. The Manager of Corporate Strategy drives strategy creation and execution, shaping ASML's sustainable future. The opportunity is perfect for Strategy Consultants at Engagement Manager / Project Leader level, looking for a high-impact role with lots of exposure and exciting next steps.

ABOUT THE COMPANY

ASML

There is a big chance ASML is part of the electronic device you're using right now. The company's lithography technology – which uses light to print tiny patterns on silicon – is fundamental to the mass production of microchips. ASML's portfolio includes the hardware, software, and services that enable the world's leading semiconductor companies to increase the value and reduce the cost of a chip.

Entering the time of immersive computing, everybody and everything will be connected and the lines between the physical and the digital world will further blur. There will be advancements such as 5G connectivity, AI, autonomous cars, and artificial neural networks. ASML's technological innovations enable all these developments.

The lithography leader is headquartered in Veldhoven and employs over 32 thousand people worldwide, spread across over sixty offices in sixteen countries. In 2021, ASML's net sales added up to 19 billion euros. The key to success is a strong focus on R&D, manufacturing, and customer support.

VACANCY

Senior Manager of Corporate Strategy

The Manager of Corporate Strategy drives the creation and execution of actionable business strategies that allow ASML to keep pushing boundaries. This professional is a member of Corporate Strategy; a small, professional and high-impact team.

The Manager of Corporate Strategy works on a wide variety of strategic topics:

- Initiate and drive cross-company strategic initiatives, typically involving multiple business lines and/or sectors. Topics could range from expansion and new market strategies to sustainability and from developing new business models or client propositions (e.g. around data analytics and services) to industrial transformation.
- Drive global strategic planning processes and projects. The Manager of Corporate Strategy contributes to a world-class strategic planning process and secures the deployment of the corporate strategy throughout the organization.
- Support the Board of Management in developing ASML's long-term (5 to 10+ years) strategic direction.

The broad set of priorities makes the role of Manager of Corporate Strategy diverse and challenging. It offers the chance to work closely together with the Executive Committee and other senior stakeholders, making it a perfect landing spot for former Strategy Consultants. ■

“The Corporate Strategy team is a great first step into ASML. It provides deeply strategic and fundamental insights in our business and offers broad exposure. The role requires hands-on experience in business strategy development and a pragmatic mindset.”
